G Numb. 192

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 27. 1702.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 25.

Vienna, November 11.

THE Avocatoria recalling the Subjects of the Empire out of the Service of the Elector of Bavaria, has been affix'd in the moſt Publick Places of this City: The Prince of Borſia and the Count de la Tour have quitted that Elector's Service. A Body of Troops are marching towards the upper Auſtria, and Count Solari is moving out of the Country of Tirol towards the Frontiers of Bavaria, the Biſhop of Saltsburg's Troops being to joyn him. The Bavarian Reſident is retir'd from hence, by order of his Imperial Majeſty, and goes directly into Bavaria through the upper Auſtria. The King and Queen of the Romans are expected here from Prague on the 22d. Order is ſent to the Chamber of Sileſia to furniſh the 8000 Saxons, who are marching hitherwards through Sileſia, with a certain Sum of Money; and it has been reſolv'd in a Council of War, to employ thoſe Troops againſt the Elector of Bavaria; General Schlick is appointed to command them; and is gone accordingly to Sileſia.

Hamburg, Nov. 3. The Apprehenſion we were in, that the Diſpute about the Regency of the Dominions of the late Duke of Holſtein Gottorp, would occaſion ſome Troubles in that Country, is over, ſince the King of Sweden has declar'd to the Nobility that he would conſent to their Proceeding in that Affair, according to the Cuſtom of Germany. However, the Dutchies of Holſtein and Sleſwick, have ſcrupled to receive a Letter written to them by Prince Chriſtian Auguſtus Adminiſtrator of the Dominions of the late Duke his Brother, in which he ſtiles himſelf Coadjutor of the Biſhoprick of Lubeck; becauſe that Office is conteſted with him by Prince Charles Brother of the King of Denmark, to whom they are likewiſe ſubject; being unwilling to involve themſelves in that Diſpute.

Hamburg, Nov. 10. Preparations are making at Sleſwick, for the Funeral of the Duke of Holſtein Gottorp, which will be very Magnificent. They have begun to ſell the Horſes and Hunting Equipage of that Prince, and 'tis thought that when General Bannier returns to Stockholm, a Reform will be made in the Troops. Letters from Copenhagen aſſure us, that ſome Perſons endeavour to excite the King of Denmark to take advantage of the preſent Juncture of Affairs, and renew the War in Holſtein; but that his Daniſh Majeſty and moſt of his Miniſters are inclin'd to maintain Peace; the rather, becauſe all is quiet in the Dutchies of Holſtein and Sleſwick, and that there is a good underſtanding between the Dutcheſs Dowager, and Prince Chriſtian Auguſtus the Adminiſtrator; beſides that the Adminiſtration is ſetled to the Satisfaction of the King of Denmark.

Rome, Oct. 31. On the 28th we had Advice, that a Turkiſh Galliot was driven aſhore by a Storm on the Coaſt near the Lake Fogliano in the Territory of Ciſterna, and that the Inhabitants, with the Militia that are appointed to guard the Coaſts, had taken 26 of the Corſairs belonging to it. The next day came Advice, that another Veſſel mann'd with 36 Turks, (who had taken 2 ſmall Genoueſe Ships, and made Slaves of 4 Mariners of that Nation,) was Stranded in the Port of Santa Felicita, and was likewiſe taken. Orders are ſent for them to make their Quarantain at Sermoneta, and afterwards to be put into the Gallies.

From the Paris Gaz. a la main, Nov. 25.

The laſt Letters from Germany tell us, That the Elector of Bavaria has given for Anſwer to the Emperor's Avocatoria, That he is ready to reeſtabliſh things on the ſame Bottom they were before his Irruption into Swabia, on Condition that the Aſſociation made at Heilbron be put in Execution.

A Marriage is agreed on between the Duke de Quentin and Madamoiſelle de Chamillart, Daughter to the Comptroller General of the Finances; her Father gives 100000 Crowns with her, and the Biſhop of Senlis 20000: The King will give a Penſion of 12000 Livres to the young Duke, and another of 8000 to his Dutcheſs.

The King has given the Chevalier de Varceil, who was his Majeſty's Lieutenant in Keyſerſwart, and after the Reduction of that Place Governour of Venlo, a Penſion of 3000 Livres, and made him a Knight of the Order of St. Louis, in the room of Lieutenant General des Bordes, who was kill'd in the Battle of Fridlingen.

London, Nov. 26. The Bombardiers and others belonging to the Train of Artillery that is ſaid to be going with ſome Land-Forces to the Weſt-Indies, went away to day to embark at Portſmouth.
